A WISE MAN

A wise man always pays a fair price for his shoes.
He knows that when a five dollar shoe is offered for a dollar and a half it is not a five dollar shoe.
He doesn't expect something for nothing.
He knows that our shoes and our prices are exactly right, and that our $3.50 shoes are the best $3.50 shoes in town.

Strength of Woman.

"Strength in woman is admired by a strong man always," writes Helen Watterson Moody in the Gleaner Ladies' Home Journal. Of course, I mean by the phrase a 'strong man' a man who has some experienced of life. It occasionally happens that very young man of real strength of character fall the victim in early life to the fascinations of a clinging, sweet, inefficient creature, as David Copperfield did to his Dora. But the older and the stronger and the wiser a man is, the more he is sure to admire the deep strength of character in woman that springs from the large and easy ability to do things well."

When it comes to dying, everybody puts it off until the last minute.

Some people are too lazy to leave any footprints in the sands of time.

Never measure prosperity by appearances: Lots of fellows will borrow a nickel to have their shoes shined.

One of the crying needs of the sunset year of the nineteenth century is "The People's Private Exchange for Unwanted Christmas presents."

Considering the great number of Belgian hares, it is strange how few people have eaten them. Perhaps the Belgian here is pure—an required taste.

THE THING IS OFF

The Allotting Agents in the Kiowa Reservation are Not Even Drawing Their Pay

JUST HOLD YOUR GRIP!

Money Has Given Out and Work Stops Entirely, But Congress Will do Something.

STOPPED DECEMBER 6.

The Law Required That Allotments be Completed by the 6th of the Present Month, Hence it is Hung up Until Congress Acts.

Word went out from Anadarko yesterday that the allotting agents had ceased work in the reservation. The law required that the allotments must be made by December 6th and as the work has been prosecuted so slowly that the appropriation run out and as a consequence the work ceases.

It is said that the sailing orders of the Kentucky were very simple, only three letters, "C. O. D."

A good many wise men think it is just as easy to run Aguinaldo out of the country as it is to run a metropolitan newspaper.

"Did you ever make a century run on your wheel?" "No, but I expect to make one in a carriage to Convention hall December 31."

The thriftiest farmer's wife yet is reported from Vermont, where the farmer was forced by her to throw his pipe away and smoke hams.

"I have always found when it comes to a little temporary aid," said the Impeccable Youth and Distant Relatives are pretty close."

THE KIOWA RESERVATION

An Early Appropriation Will no Doubt be Made to Rush Allotment

IT WILL BE NECESSARY

The Money Has Given Out and the Work Must Stop Unless More is Furnished.

WORK TAKES MONEY

It Requires a Large Force of Men and Considerable Time to Put the Indians on Their Several Allotments.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The most important legislation relating to the territories which is likely to engage congress at the present session is to furnish the interior department means to complete the allotment of the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache reservation, so as to throw it open to settlement as early a date as possible.

The secretary of war today sent to the senate reports of the Galveston storm. The board finds that $1,500,000 will be necessary to repair the jetties at Galveston and $865,000 for the repair of the Brazos river jetties. The board places the loss of life at 5,000. The damage to fortifications is placed at $902,000.

It must have cost a fabulous sum to insure the life of King Humbert of Italy for $600,000, of if the rate on crowned heads is proportionate to the risk.

World's Champion.

"I tried many remedies to cure piles," writes W.R. Smith, of Lathan, Ill., "but found no relief till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I have not been troubled with piles since." It's the only champion pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. 25c per box, guaranteed by Brown & Co.
